Treatment started but BP control remains poor at 150/90 mmHg and develops albuminuria (>300 mg/mmol). Additional agents required. CKD progresses. Eventually on 4 agents with suboptimal BP control and starts dialysis.

Dr Wheeler's case: Elderly patients with stage 4 CKD and poorly controlled BP at 155/74 mmHg. No albuminuria. Osteoporosis and history of hip fracture. Already taking bendrofluzide 5 mg and Atenolol 50 mg. Add calcium antagonist. Systolic pressure remains at 150 mmHg, with diastolic of 60 mmHg. Develops albuminuria between 30-300 mg/mmol. Patient dizzy on standing and has a fall requiring admission to hospital.
